Hearing Impaired Assisted Device

The WaveCAST Receiver app allows listeners to hear the audio on their personal, Wi-Fi connected devices, such as a mobile phone or Bluetooth enabled hearing aids.

The WaveCAST App can be downloaded from the Google Play Store for Android devices or the Apple App Store for iOS devices. Download the WaveCAST. It is recommended that the app is downloaded in advance. Join the WaveCAST Wi-Fi Network. Once the WaveCAST App is downloaded, join the same Wi-Fi network that the audio is being broadcast over (Kingwood Guest).

Android

iOS

Options for Listening:

- Connect a pair of headphones to the headphone jack on your device.
- Connect a Bluetooth headset or Bluetooth-enabled hearing aids.

If NO SERVERS FOUND is displayed, then make sure you are on the "Kingwood Guest" Wi-Fi network. It should show "Kingwood Hearing System" then just touch that and you are connected to the system.

Set your volume for your hearing aids or hearing device and enjoy the singing and sermon as you have not heard in a while.

FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

November 6, 2022

A huge thank you to Melissa VanZant and the Children's Ministry for a great Trunk of Treats event last Sunday evening. We hated to miss it but were needed in East Tennessee as we celebrated the life of a dear friend of ours. From comments I've heard, as well as pictures I've seen, it was a great night. I also want to thank everyone who participated. Your willingness to come and be a part of the evening made a great night for our kids and the community. Finally, David, Brett, and Melissa were able to go to some area businesses and Northfield Elementary over the Halloween period to encourage them and let them know that Kingwood loves our community. They were the best Woody, Bo Peep, and Alien I have ever seen! I missed being Buzz Lightyear as my Dad had a a fall and hospital stay during all of this time. It is great to be a part of a church that loves one another and those around us. Thanks to everybody for making this time special for so many.

As was mentioned in the bulletin last week, we have turned our attention to our outreach to families for Thanksgiving and Christmas. The information you need to be aware of is inside the bulletin this week and I know, as always, we will have great support for these efforts. Be praying, not just for the effort to collect food and other items, but also open hearts as we serve these in our community.

Today, we appoint some new deacons to join the work here at Kingwood in some specific areas. Please join me in welcoming these new deacons as well as committing to pray for them as well as all of our existing deacons. I appreciate the process we have gone through to appoint these men and look forward to working alongside them as well.
