Happy Mother's Day! I hope that those able to attend Muffins with Mom this morning enjoyed a time of fellowship and are looking forward to a great time of worship. I am grateful that we have a day that focuses on these special ladies in our lives. I am blessed with an incredible mom that has sacrificed so much over time to be who she is. I love you Mom and I hope you have a great day! I hope all of our moms are blessed with a wonderful day. For those missing your moms today, may your mind be refreshed with the memories you share and the impact she made. Welcome to Kingwood this morning and Happy Mother's Day!

On behalf of me and my parents, we thank you for all the prayers being lifted for Dad. He continues on his journey and we continue to seek prayers. This is a great church family and we have benefitted from the texts, cards, prayers, and more. Thank you for being who you are.

It is hard to believe that school is almost out and we are just a few weeks from the summer season. We are excited about the summer here at Kingwood. On Sunday mornings, we will continue working through the year of lessons on being the Body of Christ. On Sunday evenings, our LifeLinks groups will take their summer break and we will all enjoy Sunday Night Connect here at the building each evening at 5:00 p.m. Much more to come on that soon. Finally, our Wednesday Summer Series will be themed as a "Summer in the Son" and the lineup of speakers is fantastic. I look forward to a great summer here at Kingwood! Start praying now for a great spiritual impact!
