FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

February 19, 2023

Today we have 60 folks at Winterfest in Gatlinburg, and they will be traveling home later this afternoon. This event is always a great time for our student ministry and I am sure that this year is no different. Join me in prayer for the group this week as they come back on a spiritual high. Pray that their growth continues in the coming days, and ask that God will continue to help them grow in their walk with Him. Thanks to Brett and his team of volunteers for providing this opportunity. I know they will all be tired, but it couldn't happen without them. I look forward to hearing more reports about their weekend.

Work continues here at the building from the flood over Christmas. As you might have noticed, all the floors except for some in the offices have been replaced. The drywall is finished and painting continues. We continue to negotiate with the insurance company on the damages and the contents that were lost, and orders have been placed to replace some of those things. We are getting close to opening the classrooms back up. The carpet for the rest of the office isn't due for a few more weeks so we will continue to be in an altered setup for a bit longer. I thank you for your patience during this process and I am looking forward to its full completion.

Finally this week, we continue with our lessons on worship. Today, we will look at some additional passages and ideas about worship and then I hope to begin addressing some of your questions next week.
