FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

July 24, 2022

Tonight's Sunday Night Connect will be a time of Bible Study and discussion. I hope you will make your plans to be with us. While I was away, I hope that you enjoyed a night of worship led by our students as well as the night of prayer led by Brett last Sunday evening. I appreciate all those involved who provided quality opportunities for us on these Sunday evenings. I also appreciate David and Brett preaching for me during my vacation. It was a much needed time away and I am glad to be back with you this morning.

This Wednesday's Night Summer Series speaker once again really needs no introduction. Earl Lavender, from Lipscomb University, will be with us and I know we will be blessed by his teachings. Earl, like Walt last week, is one of the guys we try to have yearly as we get so many requests for him to come back. I am excited to hear from him this week and I hope you are too! It is hard to believe we are at the close of our series. Come hear Earl this week as he ends our series with a timely teaching!

NORTHFIELD OPPORTUNITY! We are already planning on a great beginning of the school year with Northfield Elementary. We are helping them be a supply free school by providing each student a backpack. In addition to that, we continue to gather supplies for the school and teachers. We are asking you to bring the following items between now and the start of school: Clorox wipes, boxes of Kleenex, baby wipes, 3x3 post it notes, expo dry erase markers. If you would like to make a donation toward the backpacks, or have someone shop for you, you may give those donations to the Seigenthalers or drop it in the blue lock box by the office. Be sure to clearly indicate what the donation is for. There is a display in the back of the auditorium for you to place your donated items in and around. Our goal is to supply them for the year!

Hey Kingwood! This past week started out great with a Nashville Sounds game filled with cheering, food, and home-runs! We've also spent a lot of the week getting to know lots of the kids better and forming those relationships! Through lunches, coffee dates, and late night conversations, we've been growing closer together and closer to God. The week ended on a high note with go-cart and mini golf at GO USA and then a wonderful devo at the Broome's house. As we're getting closer to the end of summer, we're spending as much time together as we can with plenty of events in the next few weeks so make sure you're checking the Remind texts! We're absolutely loving this summer and hope you are too!
