FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

November 27, 2022

I hope that you had a great Thanksgiving. I enjoyed our worship last week for many reasons. I enjoyed hearing from our kids, seeing all the food that had been brought in, hearing from David and Brett, worshiping through song, prayer and communion, and just being with the family of God. The day was made even sweeter with a baptism. Thank you for pouring out your hearts in worship and the way you approach His throne each week. Kingwood is a great place to be.

We are still having good participation in our online morning services. While we long for a time when all of us feel comfortable being back in the building, the reality right now is that we still have a good number joining us online. Some of those folks are truly shut-in, are out of town visitors, are traveling, etc. We want to continue to offer this option and we are even thinking of ways to connect more with those online. I would love to know, even from those who attend in person each week, what ideas you might want to see concerning online content during the week. We have talked about a bible study, some prayer time, and other things. What would you suggest? Let us know if you have an idea.

Today, I finish our series on the book of Acts and will transition into December by looking at Jesus and His connection to the Body of Christ. All year, we have examined being the Body of Christ and I have enjoyed walking through some of Acts as we have traced the movements and actions of the first people in the New Testament church. Thank you for your comments about the series and I hope you have been encouraged by the study.
