FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

September 4, 2022

It's hard to believe we have reached Labor Day weekend. With this extended weekend, we will not have a LifeLinks guide as the majority of our groups do not meet tonight. Speaking of LifeLinks, we had another good night of groups last Sunday night with just under 200 people involved in groups. We have added a new group on the south side of town extending to Bell Buckle. Brant Prater and Bryan Pendegraft are leading this group and they have room for others to join. While most in the group have children, they are open to anyone on that side of town joining them. So, if this peaks an interest for you, please see the Praters or Pendegrads today! I want to make another plea to join a group. It is a great way to build some lasting relationships, further your time of study and fellowship, as well as take care of needs in our congregation. Please see me if you have any questions about groups or if you are looking for a group home. For those visiting groups, trying to find your match, please try to decide which group you want to be a part of in the next week or two. I stand ready to help, so let me know how I can be of assistance!

Recently, we added four new elders to the body here at Kingwood. I want you to know how much our elders (all 9 of them) are meeting to pray for you, shepherd you, and help the church in the direction they feel God leads us to. I appreciate each of them and I want to encourage you to pray for them on a daily basis. We are blessed to have a great leadership group here and we want to be in prayer as God continues to mold this new group together as one. Don't forget to also pray for their spouses and families as well. These families need our support, encouragement, and prayers, so I ask that you take a little extra time to pray for them this week. They love this church and we are blessed!
