The Body of Christ: A People of Service

Matthew 20:20-28

The disciples showed their _____ side.
Jesus _____ them straight.
Jesus uses His _____ as an example.
You want greatness? _____!

Bottom Line -

Galatians 5:13; I Peter 4:10; Colossians 3:23-24

What is the BIG DEAL about being a people of service?
It helps do what Jesus _____ in His teachings.

FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

April 10, 2022

Be praying today as many of our students return home from their Spring retreat today. Brett and his team of volunteers have been working on this weekend for a while and I am sure that it has been a great time of spiritual growth. Join me in praying for their safe return.

I am excited about the announcement that was made last week that we are potentially adding four elders in Matt Tiller, Adam Reynolds, Jason Lane, and Carl Siegenthaler. While I hate losing Mark and Jeff, and am appreciative of their service, I am thrilled about these four guys that will soon join our leadership. As was announced, if you have any biblical objections to them becoming elders, you are asked to meet with a current elder before next Sunday. Without objections, these four men will be appointed as elders two weeks from today, on April 24. Please be prayerful about this opportunity.

The next two Sundays are great opportunities for each of us to invite others to join us for worship. Next Sunday is Easter Sunday and the following week is our Friends and Family Day. Research shows that more people are open to attending worship on Easter, as well as events like Friends and Family Day. All it takes is the courage to ask someone to come with you and these two Sundays will be a great time to reach out. On Easter, we will be looking at a message titled, The Body of Christ: A Saved People, and it will be a look at the resurrection, the blood of Jesus, and how it affects each of our lives. I hope you will ask others to join you for this great day of worship next week!
